BEEP BEEP DAY

On Wednesday St Peter's celebrated Beep Beep Day. We looked at how to cross the road safely as well as spotting dangers that could be around. We even had some volunteers from F1 who drove around in their toy cars to make the activities more fun!

ST PETER'S POST

YR2 PLANTING

In Science this week Yr2 have been planting different types of seeds. They will be watching how they grow over the next few weeks so make sure to keep an eye on Facebook and St Peter's Post!

F1 BUG HOTELS

Now Spring is here F1 have been out and about in their outdoor area and have been creating homes for a range of creepy crawlies.

Their bug hotels looked brilliant and F1 worked so hard!

YR1 EXPLORERS

Yr1 have been in our outdoor classroom for their Geography lesson this week.

They have been learning how to use a compass and exploring how to read a map.

ST PETER'S POST

Well done to Preschool for their 1st win in the attendance challenge.

Keep up the good work!

MEASURING IN YR3

Yr3 have been measuring lots of different items in Maths. They also had the added challenge of converting their measurements from centimetres to millimetres and metres.

HOULIHAN CUP

Our football team took part in the Houlihan Cup this week against Fender Primary School.

Although we didn't win we couldn't be prouder of how the team played and represented St Peter's in their attitude and sportsmanship.
