

Year 3 History: Anglo Saxons

What should I know already?

- History is studying something that has happened in the past.
- What a timeline is used for.
- That an artefact is an object from the past
- Things have happened outside of my living memory.

What will we be learning?

- Know where the Anglo-Saxons came from and how they got here.
- Describe what Anglo-Saxon life was like.
- Understand the difference between an invasion and a settlement.
- Understand an artefact is a primary source that can give us information about the past.

Key Knowledge

The Anglo-Saxons sailed from Germany, Denmark and The Netherlands in longships.

The Anglo-Saxons were made up of three tribes—they were called Angle, Saxon and Jute.

They invaded Britain in 450AD when the Romans left.

We know about Anglo-Saxon life because of excavations made by archaeologists.

Anglo-Saxon rule of Britain ended in 1066AD in the Battle of Hastings.
